WHAT CORRIE-ANN'S CLIENTS SAY

“Your generous support both with our finances and my personal challenges has been incredible”

“Corrie-Ann is so helpful and professional in her approach showing genuine concern to achieve the best outcomes”

“Your professional and caring manner has “enabled me” to gather the strength to finally take charge of the family finances”

“Corrie-Ann is very real and easy to deal with”

If you want a coach who walks beside you to help you tackle your financial goals head-on, Corrie-Ann is laced up and ready for the journey.

With a background in bank lending, mortgagee sales, and receiverships, Corrie-Ann has seen what happens when it all goes wrong and loves that her role as a financial coach now allows her to help create the opposite outcome for her clients.

With a love of shoes, a penchant for half marathons, and having been a client of enable.me herself in the past – you can be confident that Corrie-Ann walks the talk.

As a property investor, she’s also an asset to those navigating the investment journey for the first time.

Corrie-Ann’s clients love that she’s ‘real’, listens intently, and is supportive and encouraging. She takes great satisfaction from helping people get on track, get rid of debt, relieve themselves of financial stress, and start investing for their future.
